A satellite map of Lake Panasoffkee, Florida. The lake is a large, dark, irregularly shaped body of water in the center. To the left, a winding river flows into the lake. A yellow dot on the river is labeled 'Wysong Dam'. The surrounding area is a mix of green fields and brown patches. Several roads are visible: a yellow line runs horizontally across the top, labeled '44' and 'Rutland'; a yellow line runs vertically on the right, labeled '75' and 'Florida's Turnpike'; and a yellow line runs horizontally on the right, labeled '305' and 'Coleman'. A north arrow is in the top right corner. The text 'Image © 2025 Maxar Technologies' is at the bottom center.
