

Wetlands act as sponges

to soak up rainwater, prevent flooding and clean water passing through. They are important to Florida's water supply and home to many plants and animals.

Southwest Florida
Water Management District

WATERMATTERS.ORG • 1-800-423-1476

Wetland

